

In Praise of Title Nine/ Take Me Out to the Girls' Game

Tune: Take Me Out to the Ball Game

Lyrics: Kathy Miner and Barbara Arnold for the Raging Grannies of Madison, WI

1. Let's go down to the girls' game,
They can play every sport;
Soccer and hockey and basketball
Golf, bowling, track and field – they do them all;
So we'll root, root, root, for the WOMEN,
'Cause they can win every time –
And it's hip, hip, hip, hip HOORAY
For our Title Nine!
2. It's not just about sports, friends,
Title Nine did much more;
Girls taking shop class and boys in home ec –
Everyone's typing – now what will come next?
And it's root, root, root for all genders,
'Cause we're all winners this way –
And it's hip, hip, hip, hip hooray
Title Nine today!
3. Still, I'm loving the girls' game;
What we see makes us proud:
Girls growing up / so strong and cool,
Both in the classroom and a-after school.
So let's praise their skills and their confidence,
At work, at home and at play –
Yes, it's hip, hip, hip, hip HOORAY!!
For our Title Nine!
