

Immigrant Rights

Tune: McNamara's Band,

Lyrics revised by Mary Sanderson, Joy E Morgen & Rebecca Alwin

I have a friend who traveled north, with her family
This is the only home she knows, she dreams like you and me
Her dad works on a dairy farm, she's an engineer
Let's change the law to keep their skills and their talents here.

CHORUS:

Stand up and fight/ for immigrant rights
They come to work/ Don't slam the door!
Stand up and shout/ with all your might
We-e-e're all created equal, not some less and others more!

Fre-e-e traders like to build a wall so only the money gets through
If all the riches travel north the people will come too
Co-orn used to be a source of life and rural people thrived
But now it's a commodity/ You gotta go North to survive.

CHORUS

U.S. the mighty empire/ will pick and choose its guests
English-speakers welcome here, but Mexicans are pests?
One percenters suck the wealth; the law says that is fine.
But crossing the Rio Grand-e is a very serious crime? //

CHORUS

Di-ivide and conquer is the way that workers are kept down
Power seekers spread distrust of those whose skins are brown
Hate and anger can divide us// Love brings unity
Come together! Show our power in solidarity!
