

Hey, Look Me Over

tune - Cy Coleman & Carolyn Leigh "Wildcat," lyrics & arr.- Carol Tyler & Joy Morgan

Hey, look me over, Lend me an ear,
I've been assaulted but no one cares to hear,
Gave all the details, Braved all the stares
Should have known I'd be rid-i-culed
By men who should know better and I

Will not back down now Won't let the cowards win
Stand with me sis-ters We can take them on!
They're a lit-tle bit short of mo-ral-ity
But thank god we've got some
So look out world here we come!

A pink tsunami is now what we need,
Move over "ol boys" We will take the lead
No more harassment, No more as-sault!
Look for us at the voting booth to show you the result

Because we're done with man-splain-ing and all your jeers;
Wo-men will lead us We're get-ting into gear defining Cou-rage, strength and e-qual-ity
We know what must be done!
And look out world, here we come!
