

You're On Your Own

Tune & lyrics by Lauren Mayer

SOLO: The latest fights over women's rights // have us ragin' and snarlin'
But no one said it better than the incredible George Carlin ...

When ... people claim to be pro-life, their falseness and deceit runs rife
As any social safety-net they scorn ...
Oh, they'll stir up quite a fuss while you're still in a u-terus
But hell you're on your own soon as you're born.

Yeah once you're born you're on your own, despite their sanctimonious tone
For any actual assistance there's no room
Oh, once you're born you're on your own - GOP policies have shown
Their utter disregard for life outside the womb.

They claim to value motherhood, but don't support moms like they should
Which shows us what they think women are worth ...
They've revealed that they just need us as a breeder for a fetus
But you're on your own once you give birth.

Once you give birth you're on your own, you've gotta manage all alone
With no help at all from heartless legislators
Pushing misogynist laws that would Prove the truth of Margaret Atwood
Enslaving us like baby incubators!

BRIDGE: This faux concern for life is full of rank hypocrisy
As each red state's getting more restrictions locked up
Since the domestic supply of infants is their sole priority
Seems they need to keep us all barefoot and knocked up!

SOLO [all join on large-font italic phrases]: They're also banning birth control, because the only point of sex is procreation, which means people who don't want kids, LGBTQ people, and post-menopausal women like us will be screwed // or rather not screwed ...

If you're a tiny clump of cells, conservative compassion swells
They'll rave about you on each microphone
But when of real help there's a dearth, that's not pro-life it's just pro-birth
Which proves that once you're born you're on your own ...

All our basic rights get chucked
Pre-born you're fine, preschool you're f [mouth word as horn beeps]
Once you're born // or given birth // you're on your o-o-own! [watch director!]
