

The People or the Pipeline – Farmers Market

Tune: Which Side Are You On?

Original lyrics © by Vicki Ryder, revisions by Madison Grannies

START WITH CHORUS:

The ... people or the pipeline? Which side are you on?

The people or the profiteers? Which side are you on?

The Bad River Ojibwe now take a fearless stand
To keep the water and the earth from cold corporate hands.

[Oh-jib-way]

The people or the pipeline? Which side are you on?

The people or the profiteers? Which side are you on?

We learn from Native people sacred values to uphold
Honor water protectors, ever strong and bold.

The people or the pipeline? Which side are you on?

The people or the profiteers? Which side are you on?

Water is a vital trust, without it we'll all die!
We can't allow new pipeline beneath Wisconsin sky.

The people or the pipeline? Which side are you on?

The people or the profiteers? Which side are you on?

(Repeat final chorus if the crowd is into it)
