Lyrics Revision: Sheila Plotkin for Raging Grannies of Madison; Original: Doleta Chapru

Six judges, six judges, six judges Supreme
They're jolting us out of the American dream.
Roberts, Alito, Coney Barrett, and Thomas
Kavanaugh, Gorsuch – have broken their promise!

They've taken our freedom to make our own choice
Their decisions ignore the loud roar of our voice.
Immunizing a felon put him above the law
Many of us still can't believe what we saw!

Roberts, Alito, Coney Barrett, and Thomas
Kavanaugh, Gorsuch – have broken their promise!

These six rogue deciders may think that they rule
But the voters have power, and voters aren't fools.
Elections determine who serves on the court
Your vote really matters, so don't come up short.

Roberts, Alito, Coney Barrett, and Thomas
Kavanaugh, Gorsuch – have broken their promise!
