

Unite to Amend

Key of G, Start on D

Tune: "Johnny's So Long at the Fair"

Lyrics © by Vicki Ryder, revised by Raging Grannies of Madison

Intro: In 1886, the US Supreme Court decided that corporations have human rights. In 1976, they ruled that money is equivalent to free speech. Since a 2010 decision, the court allows unlimited political advertising. Wisconsin United to Amend is helping us push to amend the US Constitution to clarify that money is not the same as free speech and that only actual humans have human rights. As actual humans, we Grannies like that idea.

CHORUS Oh dear, what can the matter be?
Big money is killing democracy;
We're fed up with the fat cats' hypocrisy/
We must Unite to Amend.

The Supreme Court decided that big corporations
Can donate to candidates all through our nation.
They buy our elections with disinformation/
So, we must Unite to Amend.

CHORUS

Big money backs candidates who help the wealthy,
While poor people cannot afford to stay healthy
Our tax money's wasted on bombs that are stealthy/
So, we must Unite to Amend.

CHORUS

American citizens have the solution
To stop these egregious campaign convolutions
We'll pass an amendment to our Constitution!
We must Unite to Amend.

*Hands in prayer, watching director: Aaaahhh – MEND!
