

Housing Song

Tune: Sweet Betsy from Pike

Kay Thode, revised in Madison July, 2010

Key of G

There are millions who're sle-eping out in the street.
Clutching their bundles they all have no heat,
NO place to call home or bed for their head —
They're lucky if some of them even get fed.

In this rich prosperous country -- wouldn't you think
We could house all the homeless as quick as a wink,
If we weren't spending billions on weapons of war.
Get out of Afghanistan! Make war no more.

When wages are too low to pay the high rent,
And cities refuse to even put up a tent,
It's time for a change -- on that we agree.
More bucks for housing, not military!
More bucks for housing, not military!
