

Oh, Scott Walker

Tune: Oh, Susanna

Lyrics: Kathy Miner, Madison Raging Grannies, April 2011

I had a dream the other night,
The Capitol was still,
I thought I heard Republicans,
A-sneaking through a bill.
But the law says no, you can't do that,
You have to give us time
To read the bill, and know what's there,
And make you toe the line.

Chorus:

Oh, Scott Walker, now don't you mess with me,
I come from all Wisconsin with a sign for you to see!

Now fourteen spunky Democrats,
To Illinois had sped,
To stop the vote, or so they hoped,
So quick good-byes they said.
When they came home, the people cheered,
Heroes they were called
They bought us time to organize,
And gather in the halls.

Chorus

Well, it snowed all day that Saturday,
The people didn't care,
Their cause so hot, it kept them warm,
There was a rally there!
Now I come from all Wisconsin with
My ballot in my hand,
And I say to you Republicans,
I'm gonna take a stand!

Chorus
